"LET THERE BE LIGHT"

"FELLBOELIN" and "AIDA"

INCANDESCENT KEROSENE LAMPS

ARE THE BEST AND CHEAPEST LIGHTS IN THE WORLD

They burn a mantle of special durability

Six times as bright as a central draught lamp, at 1-6th the cost. An ordinary lamp costs $12 a year to maintain the "FELLBOELIN" or "AIDA" costs $2. Ten times as bright as electricity at 1-10th the cost, 15 per cent. brighter than incandescent gas light at 1-6th the cost. You can save the price of a lamp in a few months.

No. 100

Can be turned low and will not smell or smoke—a splendid lamp to burn all night. Does not heat up like a central draught lamp. The wick needs no trimming and will last a lifetime. It will not heat the oil fount. Fit up your house or store with the "FELLBOELIN" or "AIDA" and divide your light bill by 6.

Chimneys are German Jena glass and will not break from heat or water.
